1. On 7 June the Nant'ou District Sea-Land Joint Patrol Garrison Office (海陸州防聯合警衛處　　) was established by headquarters of the 130 Division. TENG Hsi-chieh (鄧錫節), commander of the 130 Division, is the director of this office and KU Ming-chung (古銘鐘)is the deputy director. The Kwangtung River Defense Command assigned to this new unit a Sea Patrol Squadron consisting of one small naval vessel, 40 small gunboats and 20 motor junks. The mission of this squadron will be to patrol the south Kwangtung coastal area to prevent surprise raids by the Nationalist fleet and to escort Chinese Communist vessels carrying important supplies for the mainland.

2. On 21 June at 8 a.m. two Soviet submarines left the Bocca Tigris area where they had been anchored.

3. In early June the Public Security Bureau authorities in Fukien gave a short period of mine demolition training to about 12 fishermen and merchants and sent them in five groups to a nearby Nationalist-held island, disguised as merchants, to attempt to neutralize marine mines laid by the Nationalists on these islands.

4. In mid-June nine gunboats under the command of the Chinese Communist Sea Defense Headquarters at Tinghai (122-06, 30-03) were sent to Shihp'u (121-56, 29-15), where they were to be based, to patrol the coast in that area.
